Vessel Studio Residency Ethos

Vessel Studio AiR will provide physical space and practical support for each resident's creative process. The residency is not project based although site responsive iterations are encouraged. The following criteria are for each artist to implement in their own ways. As the residency is designed for one artist at a time these criteria are an essential component that assists in maintaining dynamism, energy and which in turn allows for real support to be provided in Ibiza, with contacts in Barcelona, London & Madrid.

1/ An Exhibition either during or at the end of the residency discussed and with appropriate support. This can be either in the studio space or a chosen location relating to the work.

2/ An interview either with Rachel or a journalist (or both)

3/ A meeting once a week to discuss the work any needs and further development and or collaborations on Ibiza.

4/ A workshop and/or Open Studio.

5/ Any work sold through introductions by Vessel Studio AiR will take a commission of 20% this includes any sales at the exhibition. There will be a contract to sign at the beginning of the residency.

Portfolio & CV where appropriate please provide 5 - 10 images of your work. Images must be less than 1MB and your CV.

Cost Vessel Studio Ibiza AiR
